Message from the President

Dear CCIPA members:

Over the past three quarters, the CCIPA's board of director has been working hard as a group to plan events including social gatherings, seminars, golf tournament and special dinners. We are always looking for way to attract new members as well as finding ways to increase the value of our association to our current members and the industry. I would like to extend my appreciation to all directors who have contributed many of their hours to make our events a success.

However, as a CCIPA member, you are just as important. We have had many members who spread our name across the industry and thus have helped contribute in the growth of our association. I am always excited to hear feedback and suggestions that our members have and would welcome anyone to speak with me during any of our events!

I am very pleased and proud as the present President because I have all your continuous support. Our last event on Feb. 26, 2016, Seminar & Chinese New Year Dinner was very successful. We have reached our highest record of attendance and hope to break it next year!

I would like to thank you all for your contribution and participation. On behalf of CCIPA, I want to thank our special guests, speakers and performers who have made many of our events unforgettable. Finally, a special thanks to all our sponsors for their generous support.

I look forward to speaking with you all at our upcoming events.

Have a great summer everyone!

Jennifer Chow
