Message from the President

Dear Members & Colleagues,

I am humbled and honored to assume the role of President of Canadian Chinese Insurance Professional Association (CCIPA). I am deeply grateful to my predecessor, Corey Chan, for his leadership and contributions to the Association during his presidency. I look forward to continuing this important work towards fulfilling the mission of CCIPA.

I am joined by my Board of Directors team, Mark Luo, Maggie Yang, Corey Chan, Jane Li, Mei Han, Anthony Chan, Mary Liu, Jennifer Chow, Otis Wong, Ning Luo and Jing Cheng. With their continued supports and dedications, I am confident that we will achieve our growth to the next level.

CCIPA is a great established platform for connecting a collective of professions and talents in insurance industry, sharing of knowledge and experience. We must grow our service which would most benefit to our members, our partner insurance companies, and the community.

In the next two year, I will take on 3 major initiatives:

1. Innovation and improvement in the membership system.

We are improving the connections with our members.

We are listening to your comments and suggestions!

Please feel free to contact any of our Directors or myself, or email to membership@ccipa.com

2. Education – Knowledge is Power.

We are encouraging, being an Insurance Professional, we will need to enhance our knowledge all the times, and keep ourselves updated with the changes. This is the worthy of a professional person who is competent, skillful, and assured.

3. Networking Events

We will continue establishing relationship and developing partnership which we deeply believe this is a key element. To collaborate with brokers channel and insurance partners with all the sharing, is significantly improving the understandings and preventing conflicts within the industry.

Louisa Hui

President, CCIPA
